HARRISON WINS 26th LWGA SENIOR AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Julie Harrison of Baton Rouge, a ten-time Louisiana Women's Golf Association Champion, won her fifth LWGA Senior Amateur Championship title with an 80-77—157 total at Le Triomphe Golf & Country Club, Broussard. Marge Richters, Monroe, was runner-up with 78-84—162 in the rain-soaked event, which was conducted for the first time in tandem with the 19th LWGA Mid-Amateur Championship. In addition to a delay due to lightning on day one, the start of the second round of play was delayed by rain along with high winds. Terry Theriot, Jefferson, claimed the Super Senior prize, and Grand Super Senior Champion was Julia McKey, Slaughter.

Harrison recently competed in the U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Championship at Waverly Country Club, Portland, Oregon and has qualified for the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championship, November 11-16 at Champions Golf Club (Cypress Creek Course) in Houston. Originally, slated for October 7-12 at Quail Creek Country Club, Naples, Florida, the course, clubhouse and surrounding area suffered significant damage from Hurricane Irma, making it necessary for the USGA to reschedule the Championship.
